

Church, Nonprofit and Ministry Web Design

Launch Hosting provides cost effective web solutions for churches, ministries and nonprofits for web design, hosting, streaming video and audio and much more. Take a look at some of our design plans for churches, ministries & organizations.

Launch Hosting:

- Knows how to help you achieve the best possible website and deliver proactive solutions.
- Works together with your church, ministry or nonprofit to create the perfect website.
- Does not rush you in the process of planning your website.
- Is Christian owned and operated.

Launch Hosting is ready to help your church, ministry or nonprofit expand and grow with its own web site. Launch Hosting is a Christian owned and operated business and understands the desire to reach the world with the gospel message.

Launch Hosting can help your church, ministry, nonprofit or charity by creating a website that will not only reach your local community but also the whole world by integrating social media into your site.

Web Design & Web Development Pricing

Customized Web Design & Development

Solutions For Churches, Ministries & All Nonprofits

Are you currently trying to design or setup your own website or do you have a current site that is in need of major updates or improvements? We can help get your site up and running with the latest innovative solutions available.

We can integrate video into your website and at the same time market your website through social video networks. You can share the gospel message with larger audiences like never before through social video networks such as: Google video, youtube and others.

We can customize a plan that will accommodate large or small churches, ministries and all nonprofits.

Do you have a radio broadcast? Need to stream your sermon or audio message on the web? We can integrate audio into your website and if requested integrate the audio through social audio networks to spread the gospel message.

Are you in the music industry? Do you want to sell your music online? Need to stream samples on your website? We can help.

We can integrate music into social music networks, social audio networks and provide ways for you to sell your music on your website.

We can install an easy-to-use photo gallery for your church, ministry and any nonprofit. You can add, edit and delete photos in your online photo gallery.

We help our clients every step of the way and answer any questions they may have. Call us today and see for yourself how friendly our tech support is and don't forget to take a look at some of our client recommendations.

Is your website receiving no or low amounts of visits? We can help increase visits to your website by integrating your website into social networks and other ways such as SEO and PPC. We can help create a realistic campaign that will generate results not only for the short term but also long term. Visit the SEO Marketing page and PPC Marketing page for more info.